How Bird-Lime is Used in Japan.

Among the many industries of Japan is the manufacture of bird-lime, and an interesting account is given in Consul Annesley's commercial report on Osaka and Hiogo for the past year of the various uses to which this article is put by the Japanese. It is of course principally employed for the snaring of birds and other animals. By its means animals as large as monkeys are caught. When once they get the stuff on their paws they soon cover themselves with it, and so exhaust themselves in trying to get rid of it that they fall an easy prey. Birds also as large as ducks are taken by an ingenious process: The young shoots of the fugu (Wisteria), which are strong light and flexible, are knotted to gether, smeared with bird-lime, and float out to sea. Numerous wild fowl are bagged by this means, and the tackle will serve any number of times until the bird-lime dries. Small birds are caught in various ways—some by means of a decoy bird concealed near a patch of tempting food, which is plentifully planted with little splinters of bamboo like large needles, the upper half of which is covered with lime. Others are caught while on trees, by means of a long and slender bamboo, the top of which is anointed with the lime and stealthily thrust against their feathers. Rats are easily caught by spreading a small quantity on a piece of board or paper, and placing it near their holes. It is spread on a bamboo leaf and used during the Summer for catching flies and other insects. Flea traps are made of its service, and occasionally used by the Japanese in bed. This trap looks like a boat-rack, and consists of a piece of board smeared on the upper surface with the lime, surmounted by semicircles of bamboo to keep the bedding off the board. Bird lime is also used by the Japanese for medical purposes, and is considered one of the best cures for wounds, cuts, etc. Japan is the only country where it is regularly manufactured on a large scale, the principal tree from which it is made being a bark evergreen growing in the the south.—Pull Mail Gazette.

"I was born at Bath," said a dirty looking customer, as he harangued a crowd at a political meeting, "and I have my native place." "You don't look as though you had ever been there since," said one of his hearers, as he proceeded to land an opposition candidate.

It is lawful to do good on the Sabbath day. This fact is mentioned because a number of persons have never performed good deeds on any day, and it may be that they are in doubt about Sunday laws and so hesitate to be decent.

Distance has only a relative value, remarks the Burlington Hawkeye. When a man sits down on a carpet-tack only a quarter of an inch long, it is hard for him to realize that the point of it didn't come out at the back of his neck.

R. NASH & CO.,

Two Senators to Elect.

It is rumored that Congressman Wren is in receipt of a letter from Mr. Sharon, in which the latter declares his intention of resigning his seat in the Senate only in time for the next Nevada Legislature to elect his successor. This will bring the election of two Senators and a Congressman directly before the people of this State next year. Sharon, with commendable modesty, says that his two years of Senatorial experience has not brought him any especial honors, in either a political or personal sense. In fact, the session has not been profitable in any way to him, and he thinks of devoting himself more exclusively to his banking and mining interests. Sharon omitted to state whether the country had been benefitted by his purchase, and no doubt thinks the country will be benefitted sufficiently by his intended resignation. We are not very well acquainted with public feeling, but we deem it barely possible that the nation will be satisfied. The people have learned that not every good thing is accessible to them, and they will give up Sharon with as good grace as possible.

And now the thought strikes us, like a flying brick, that the probable election of these two Senators accounts for the nervous motions of our political masters. Many changes are going forward which amount to a clearing of the political deck for action. Heavy guns, long unused, are now being prepared for service, and small arms are handed to the political ordinance officers for distribution where they will be most effective. About next May, when the joints have all been oiled and orders given, a new Commander will step aboard and say what is wanted of us. It remains to be seen whether the crew will receive him well or not.

Pinchback has made a gallant fight for years in support of his claim upon the title of United States Senator, has at last withdrawn in disgust. His withdrawal from the contest was accompanied by a letter to Governor Nicholls wherein he tells how he feels in regard to his defeat, reproves Senators for double dealing, and questions the justice of Kellogg's claim, if his is not perfect. Pinchback has been disappointed scores of times and has determined to disappoint someone else.

The Democrats in Congress have resolved to raise their wages $2 per day, and for that purpose, will try to reduce the tax on whiskey fifty cents on the gallon. If the reduction is effected each Democratic statesman will save from two to five dollars per day. This is what Sammy Tilden meant when he went to St. Louis and yelled "reform."

The Chinese residents of San Francisco favor Page's bill for the restriction of Chinese immigration. This is, in our opinion, a good reason for defeating it. The idea of Mongolian residents seems to contemplate a monopoly of Chinese labor, by controlling all of their countrymen now in America.

The Commercial Advertiser says of the labor question: The question, simple as it is, is too deep for their comprehension. They do not perceive that at the present rate of wages here our manufacturers are sending the crude material to the East to be worked up and sent back here in the form of the various articles in constant and universal use among us; and that the money spent in the transport of these goods and for the labor employed at the East in their manufacture would, if labor was not now so much higher here than it is there, be expended among our own working people, and would remove the depression caused by the idleness resulting from an over-demand for wages among us.

Good news from the Grand Prize. The Review says: The cross cut on the fourth level of the Grand Prize, at a depth of 350 feet, has been driven in twenty feet from the shaft and has cut the ledge which is fully three and a half feet in width, and the entire vein yields ore that averages $243 per ton. The ore is as handsome as could be, and the best judges declare it to be exactly like the richest ore from the Consolidated Virginia. This strike is regarded as the best ever made in the camp, and shows conclusively that the Grand Prize goes down, improving as depth is attained.

What the Grangers Want.

J. W. A. Wright, State Grange Lecturer of California, and whom our citizens have heard upon the subject of co operation, delivered an address in Sacramento on Saturday evening, which embodies the desires of California farmers. The address was a sort of suggestion to the Legislature now in session, and should be heeded by the representatives of the people. Among other things Mr. Wright mentioned the following wants of the farming classes, and it will be found that most of them find sympathy everywhere:

Remonetization of silver, and making gold, silver and paper money of the Government of equal purchasing power; restriction of Chinese immigration, etc.; a thorough system of irrigation; encouragement of civil service reform and a liberal Southern policy; reduction of expenses of all governmental branches to the lowest figure consistent with efficient service; industrial and agricultural education as a part of our educational system; all corporations to be fully amenable to and restricted by law as a citizen; equitable levy and assessment of taxes and reduction and better distribution of tariffs; reduction of port charges on this coast; protection of public lands for actual settlers; a general recognition of the rights of laborers, and encouragement in the securing of permanent homes; the punishment of speculation and malfeasance in office; maintenance of the purity of the ballot box and official positions; fostering measures to concentrate capital and labor less in cities and a more general distribution of them through rural districts. He said that the people demanded hemp as a remedy for the breaking of pledges by the people's representatives, and warned the legislators that if they did not grant the reasonable behests of the people they had better look well to their necks.

MAIL CONTRACTORS, TAKE NOTICE.—A Washington dispatch of December 8th says: The Postoffice Department has completed and is now issuing a printed advertisement, in pamphlet form, inviting proposals for carrying the mails on all the routes of the Pacific Coast States and Territories during a term of four years, commencing on the first day of next July. No advertisements will be made in newspapers, as heretofore, but intending bidders may procure these pamphlets, containing time schedules, forms of proposals, etc., on application to the department, or can inspect a copy, which the law requires to be posted at each and every post-office within the district designated. Proposals are to be received until 3 P. M., February 2, and awards will be announced on or before March 30. The routes to be let include 167 in California, 64 in Oregon, 34 in Nevada, 30 in Washington Territory and 118 in Utah, Arizona, New Mexico, Montana and Idaho.

WINTERMANTL'S.—The attention of the reader is called to the comfortable hotel and restaurant of Louis Wintermantel, on Center Street, near the Depot. The best of accommodations are offered to travellers. Also the El Dorado Saloon, opposite the hotel, where the pleasant water and shooting galleries, ten pin alleys, billiard table and bagatelle. The El Dorado has been arranged for the comfort of guests, and the best of wines, liquors and cigars are kept constantly on hand. If you are looking for a quiet and comfortable place in which to pass an hour, go to the El Dorado, and good attention is guaranteed.

WASHOE'S PROSPECTS.—The wood business has come to an end in and about Washoe. The flume which connected that burg with the mountains and brought business and inhabitants to the town, has exhausted the wood range which surrounded it, and will not be kept in operation longer. Washoe was, in the old days, a prospective metropolis, when Jack Foulks, C. C. Goodwin, G. W. Cassidy and J. C. Lewis were aldermen of the city. But these large-hearted men stunted its growth, and Washoe has declined, something like the Roman Empire did, for years past. The end of the wood business will withdraw most of the town support, and Washoe will soon be one of the cities which were but are not.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

TELEGRAPHIC CHANGE.—We are informed that on and after Jan. 1st, the commercial business of the A. & P. Telegraph Co. will be attended to by the Western Union Telegraph Company. It was presumed that the visit of the Western Union magnates to this Coast meant business. The change stated verifies the supposition. We only trust that the present prices will not be raised, although it is not by any means positive that without opposition the present rates will be maintained. The visit of the officers of the Western Union, from Ogden we are further informed, was merely for pleasure, the object of their trip having been consummated at Ogden. The real bargain was made no doubt in New York, when Huntington, the chief boss of the C. P. R. R., left Washington, just before he made his land proposition, "to attend to some business in New York."

SCHOOL FUNDS.—$8,286 63 has been apportioned among the several school districts of Washoe County. The apportionment provides quite a respectable sum for the future work of each district, and we are informed that the work of each school is in efficient hands. The apportionment is given below.

1. Franktown.....	$ 461 43
2. Washoe.....	518 91

GRAND TURKEY SHOOT.—Messrs. Hyde & Co. have made arrangements for the time-honored turkey-shooting which seems appropriate to Christmas. As will be seen by their advertisement they have provided two hundred turkeys, and numberless chickens. The shooting distance will be as usual, and the customary rules will prevail. A good chase after a greased pig will add variety to the Christmas entertainment, and there is no use of anyone eating roast beef on Christmas when he may shoot a fat turkey for fifty cents. Oil your guns gentlemen and make ready.

RICHINGS-BERNARD TROUPE.—Our citizens will all remember the above named company and their rendering of "Martha" in our city some time since. The performance at that date gave unmeasured satisfaction, and now the company comes to us much strengthened, and will remain for two nights. The advance agent permits us to announce Balfe's celebrated opera "The Bohemian Girl" for the opening night, Thursday evening, December 13th. The company will no doubt meet with a warm reception. Seats for sale at the Postoffice.

We have received a finely engraved card of invitation to attend the drawing of the Louisiana lottery at an early day. The card is signed by Jubal Early and G. T. Beauregard, two active elements in the "late unpleasantness." Our readers can hardly understand how much grief agitates us when we know the walking is bad between here and Louisiana. No, Jubal, it can not be; your kindness touches us, and your communication hangs next to a proposition to advertise Holloway's pills—payable in pills.

CONGRESSIONAL LYCEUM.—Remember the Lyceum meeting this evening at the district Court room. The club convenes at 7 o'clock. To-night the Sharon resolution will be disposed of. The personal explanation of our cotem. is awaited with much interest. The Argonaut, the Enterprise, the Eureka Republican and the Carson Tribune defend Sharon. Mr. Pown opposed but afterwards favored Sharon's election. The speaker called him out, and to-night the reasons for this change will be given.

TOYS, VARIETIES & CO.—C. J. Brookins & Co., on Virginia Street are opening a large and well selected stock of holiday goods, which is, we believe, the largest assortment of varieties ever brought to the town. The firm offers to the holiday trade presents for old and young, rich and poor. See advertisement for particulars.

From County Treasurer's semi-annual report to the State Controller, we see that the county turns over to the State $35,474 60 as the State's proportion of the taxes collected.

The revenue from gaming license amounts to $1,504; 752 of which goes to the county.

State and County tax paid under protest, from the assessment roll of 1876, $126, $63 to the county.

Revenue alone to the State but which is afterwards turned into the General School Fund, and apportioned as such to the various County School Funds as follows: From penal fines in the District Court, $32 75; from penal fines in the Justice Court, $164 00; from toll roads and bridges, $3 85. Total, $250 60. It will be seen from the above statement that our county is financially solid.

More gentlemanly and warm-hearted men than those who constitute the editorial and reportorial staff of the Virginia City and Gold Hill papers we have not found. There is nothing mean or clumsy about them. They belong to a small but noble band called men.

Yankee Dodge is the next man to come to the front. See his local ads. elsewhere.

FRANK'S CHOP HOUSE.—Mr. Frank Rhodes, one of the best cooks on the coast, keeps a first class chop house on the east side of Virginia street. Frank cannot be excelled in getting up ordered meals. House kept open night and day. East side of Virginia street, Reno. 12-61

TO THE RANCHER.—The Banner Mill Company, of Boca, Cal., have determined to make a specialty of fencing, and with that view offer to the ranchers of Washoe county a superior article of Red Fir, acknowledged to be the best lumber in any market for the purpose named. The price will be found another inducement in comparison with other varieties. Address, Banner Mill Co., or R. P. M. Greedy, Boca, Cal. No other mill company this side of the mountains has this variety of lumber for sale. 4-11

NEW BARBER SHOP.—Joe Lopez can be found on the corner of Commercial Row and Virginia Street, where good work in the barbering line is guaranteed. He invites all his friends to call. 12-111

VALUABLE PRIZES
Were awarded as follows: Silver castor, No. 22, Miss M. E. Grippin; shell box, No. 155, P. Hickey; silver pitcher, No. 43, E. M. Grippin; China tea set, No. 27, Mrs. Thomas Haydon; twenty-dollar piece, No. 30, B. Chielovich; silver tea set, No. 64, Mr. McNamara; sheep and lamb, No. 72, J. T. Gallagher; vases, No. 7, J. Sullivan; cow and calf, No. 198, G. P. Barnett; span of colts, No. 17, —.

BENEFACTORS.

The ladies return special thanks for the following valuable donations: Mrs. Mayberry, silver pitcher and salver; Mrs. J. Sullivan, cow and calf, and 1 ton hay; Mrs. P. J. Kelly, span of colts and one ton of hay; Mr. I. Fredrick, silver castor; M. M. Duck, beautiful lamp; J. C. Hagerman, a nice lamp; W. J. O'Brien, valuable sheep and lamb; P. Dalton, one ton hay; a friend, $20 gold. They also feel deeply indebted for many favors to Messrs. Osburn, Sunderland, P. McCarn, Sanders & Neal, J. Toombs, S. N. Davidson, McClellan, Granger Store, Grey & Isaac, Williams, H. H. Hogan, J. D. Shaw, P. Hogan, A. Jose, W. Hoffman, G. Becker, R. Nash, J. Prescott, C. J. Brookins, Barnett Bros., J. B. Marshall, M. D. Cohen, Miss Harney, Miss Brown, Miss Bragg, Miss Pollard, Miss Golden, Mrs. Fogus, Mrs. Thomas, Mrs. Hoole and many others too numerous to mention to whom the ladies are equally indebted.

VALE.

The ladies feel greatly delighted at the grand success with which their efforts were crowned. All those who visited the hall cheerfully acknowledge the superior taste and skill displayed in the arrangement of the tables, many of which if equalled could not be surpassed. Thanksgiving day the great feature in the Fair dawned upon a refreshment table inviting indeed to the most fastidious as well as the epicurean. Every one seemed to feel the magnetic influence of the hall, especially on this day and found to his delight everything that could be admired and wished for. The music during the Fair was perfectly grand and called forth the admiration and praise of all. Rene has completely surpassed herself. Her sister towns stand bewildered and gaze with astonishment at her strides of progress. They cannot realize her present importance and are certainly unable to fathom her brilliant future.

May kind Providence continue to rule and direct her; may her friends and patrons long deserve the laurels they have so richly won, and may her virgin brow be forever encircled with an unfading wreath.

THOS. E. PETTIT, Pastor.
Reno, Dec. 11th, 1877.

Capt Jack's performance will fall through. His company is billed for this place to-morrow night, but for several excellent reasons he will fail to connect. Success to Crawford at his next deal.

Northern Belle has declared its regular $1 dividend. A good mine that Northern Belle.

Why does everybody go to Yankee Dodge? Because it is the cheapest place in Reno. Look at the prices! Ladies' under vests and drawers, 75 cents; ladies' wool jackets, 1 50; ladies' cotton hose, 12 1/2 cents; hairbrush hose, 50 cents; walnut frames, (cabinet size) 25 cents; cotton socks, 13 1/2 cents; good pins—5 papers, 25 cents; ladies' heavy leather cloaks, 10 00; heavy double blankets, $1 50; good cigars, 5 for 25 cents, and everything else in proportion. Quicksilver News.

Mr. W. T. C. Elliott yesterday visited the cinnabar claims near Steamboat Springs, and set men at work prospecting for sulphur and the valuable mercurial ores. Mr. Elliott is interested in four claims, two of which he proposes to develop at this time. The main claim lays northeast of the Nevada Quicksilver works nearly half a mile. He says that he has already found considerable sulphur, and has fine prospects for a quicksilver mine.

He visited the Nevada Quicksilver mine and says that Messrs. Humbert & Co. have already obtained several hundred pounds of quicksilver; that they are highly pleased at the flattering evidences of the success of their enterprise and propose in a short time to erect an additional furnace. The sulphide and chloride mercurial ores are easily obtained and chiefly transported at Steamboat, and if this ore is not found in great abundance in any one claim there is beyond a doubt a sufficient quantity of it within a radius of three miles from the Nevada mine to keep their present works in active operation for several years. Again, there are not only the advantages we have mentioned, but also when the quicksilver is obtained it finds a ready market close at hand; its ores are received within one and a half miles of the V. & T. Railroad, and some twelve miles from the Comstock, its principal market.

JUST RECEIVED FROM THE EAST.—C. J. Brookins & Co., Virginia street, have just received from the East a most extensive and varied assortment of goods for the Holidays, to which they invite the attention of the public. A miserly millionaire is asked to contribute to a charitable fund, but declines to do so, whereupon the lady patroness upbraids him for his stinginess.

"Ah, madame," he says sadly, "if we rich people liked to be generous we should be too happy. We must deny ourselves something."

A Scotch bailie promised to attend a meeting, but broke his engagement. When remonstrated with he excused himself by saying that he had been attending another meeting, and then plaintively added, "I couldn't come, you know—can't be in two places at once; I am not amphibious."

"What," asked a youth timidly of an eminent philologist, "what, sir, is the meaning of this phrase—'Modus operandi'?"—and the great linguist, whose mind was saturated with the literature of ancient Greece and Rome, replied: "It is Latin for 'How the old thing works.'"

The other day a mean man out in a Western town went off into a quiet country place and died so quickly that his wife got his insurance money before the company had time to fail. The President said he never felt so swindled and cut up since he has been in the business.
